MAXWELL STARKY

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

MAXWELL STARKY, ET. AL,

Defendants.

Case No. 15-CR-0234 (CRB)(JSC)

DEFENDANT MAXWELL STARKY'S MEMORANDUM REGARDING PLACEMENT IN TRIAL GROUP

INTRODUCTION

On February 11, 2016, the government filed a 23-count Second Superseding Indictment, charging thirty-eight people with a loose variety of crimes.¹ The government has attempted to corral these disparate defendants and allegations into three groups for purposes of proceeding to trial. According to the government “the three trial groups suggested by government counsel make the most sense from an evidentiary perspective” in that “the government tried to best reflect the primary scheme in which the defendants were involved.” (Dkt. #715, 3:16-17, 20-21). At a

¹ Thereafter, four of the defendants were dismissed from the case on motion of the government.

1 hearing on September 14, 2016, the government presented its proposed groups, designating the 2 alleged “Financial Crimes Group (money laundering, identity theft and bank/wire fraud)” as Trial
3 Group 1, and included defendant Starsky in that Trial Group.² Various defendants voiced 4 objections to their inclusion in various groups and the Court directed any defendant who objects 5 to his inclusion in a group file those objections for consideration at a hearing scheduled for 6 October 26, 2016. Mr. Starsky strongly objects to his inclusion in Group 1 - the “Financial 7 Crimes” Group. While he is charged with various “financial crimes,” he alone among the 8 defendants in Group 1 is primarily involved, according to the Indictment and discovery, in the 9 pharmaceuticals “Drug Diversion Group” designated as Group 2. An examination of the charges 10 makes clear that all of the so-called financial offenses with which he is charged actually grow out 11 of and are inextricably bound up with his alleged involvement in the pharmaceuticals 12 transactions. Thus, when judged under the criteria propounded by the government as the basis for 13 the groupings, Mr. Starsky should be included in Group 2 rather than Group 1.

16 ARGUMENT

17 I. Background - Allegations Against Maxwell Starsky

18 Defendant Maxwell Starsky is charged in this indictment with racketeering conspiracy (18
19 U.S.C. § 1962(d))(Count One), conspiracy to commit identity theft (18 U.S.C. § 1028(f))(Count 20 Two), conspiracy to commit access device fraud (18 U.S.C. § 1029(b)(2))(Count Three), 21 conspiracy to commit mail, wire or bank fraud (18 U.S.C. §1349)(Count Four), money laundering
22 (18 U.S.C. § 1956(h))(Count Five), and conspiracy to engage in unlicensed wholesale distribution
23 of drugs (18 U.S.C. § 371)(Count Seven). 24 defendants are charged in Counts One and Two, 21

26 ² Also included in this Group are defendants Gevork Ter-Mkrchyan, Artin Sarkissians,
27 Dmitry Kustov, Loui Artin, Michael Inman, Hripsime Khachtryan, Ararat Yesayan, Tigran
28 Sarkisyan, and Ara Karapedyan. (Joint Memorandum re Trial Groupings and Trial Setting – Docket #715, p. 2:11-15.)

1 defendants are charged in Count Three, 37 defendants are charged in Count Four, 35 defendants
2 are named in Count Five, and 23 defendant are charged in Count Seven. (Second Superseding 3 Indictment, Dkt. # 502).

4 II. Any Analysis of the Charges Against Maxwell Starsky Establishes that His 5 Placement in the First Trial Group Is Erroneous and Is Unduly Prejudicial to this 6 Defendant

7 As presently constituted, Trial Group No. 1, identified by the government as the 8 “Financial Crimes Group (money laundering, identity theft and bank/wire fraud)” includes 9 Maxwell Starsky. It also includes defendants Gevork Ter-Mkrchyan, Artin Sarkissians, Dmitry
10 Kustov, Loui Artin, Michael Inman, Hripsime Khachtryan, Ararat Yesayan, Tigran Sarkisyan, 11 and Ara Karapedyan. (Joint Memorandum re Trial Groupings and Trial Setting – Docket #715, p.
12 2:11-15.) According to the government, “the three trial groups suggested by government counsel 13 make the most sense from an evidentiary perspective” and that “the government tried to best 14 reflect the primary scheme in which the defendants were involved.” (Docket #715, p. 3:16-17, 20-15 21.)

17 However, from the perspective of the government’s pleadings, it would appear that 18 defendant Starsky does not share anything in common with the other defendants in Trial Group
19 No. 1 and, from an “evidentiary perspective” has much more in common with Trial Group No. 2
20 – identified by the government as the “Drug Diversion Group.”³ It is true that defendants
21 Starsky, Gevork Ter-Mkrtchyan, Dmitry Kustov, Loui Artin, Michael Inman⁴, Hripsime
22 Khachtryan, Tigran Sarkisyan and Ara Karapedyan from Trial Group No. 1 are charged together 23 as those who “negotiated and attempted to negotiate in excess of 500 fraudulent checks totaling 24

26 ³ This group includes Mirhyan Stepanyan, Artur Stepanyan, David Miller, Yan German, 27 Javier Ramirez, Arman Danielian, Araxia Nazaryian, Stanley Azrilyan, Arman Zargaryan, 28 Alexander Soliman, Michael Ashegian, Marc Ashegian, Cheryl Brandt, Eric Figueroa, and Hugo
Marquez. (Dkt. #715, p.2:17-20).

⁴ Defendant Inman is not charged in Counts Two, Three and Five.

1 more than $5 million and issued to a variety of payees” (Docket #502, p. 10, ¶20) and named
2 along with many other defendants as part of the “Racketeering Conspiracy” (Count One [Docket
3 #502, pp. 15-19, ¶¶29-34), the “Conspiracy to Commit Identity Theft” (Count Two [Docket #502,
4 pp. 19-20, ¶¶35-39]), the “Conspiracy to Commit Access Device Fraud” (Count Three [Docket
5 #502, pp. 21-23, ¶¶40-46]), the “Conspiracy to Commit Mail, Wire, and Bank Fraud” (Count
6 Four [Docket #502, pp. 23-25, ¶¶47-51]) and the “Money Laundering Conspiracy” (Count Five 7 [Docket #502, pp. 25-27, ¶¶52-54]). But defendant Starsky is also charged with the “Conspiracy
8 to Engage in the Unlicensed Wholesale Distribution” (Count Seven [Docket #502, pp. 28-30, 9 ¶¶58-61]) along with all the defendants in Trial Group No. 2.

11 Moreover, in support of the “negotiating fraudulent checks” contention against defendant
12 Starsky and others, the Superseding Indictment avers: “A substantial portion of the fraudulent 13 checks were tax refund checks sent by mail by the United States Treasury, and many of these tax 14 refund checks had been issued based on fraudulent tax returns filed with the Internal Revenue 15 Service” and lists 51 such tax refund checks. (Docket #502, pp. 10-12, ¶¶20-21). Yet, none of 16 these tax refund checks relate to any conduct by defendant Starsky. Similarly, the fraudulent 17 checks schemes averred in paragraphs 22 and 23 of the Superseding Indictment do not involve 18 defendant Starsky at all. (Docket #502, pp. 12-13, ¶¶22-23).

21 Furthermore, the only specific factual averments supporting allegations against defendant 22 Starsky in the Second Superseding Indictment for “Money Laundering” are all derivative of the 23 allegations against him in the “Conspiracy to Engage in the Unlicensed Wholesale Distribution” 24 (Count Seven), to wit: “ARA KARAPEDYAN and MAXWELL STARKSKY, from in or about 25 October 2014 through in or about January 2015, provided ME Wholesale with more than $1
26 million worth of improperly procured drugs” (Docket #502, p. 9, ¶18); and “between in or about 27 October 2014 and in or about February 2015, ME Wholesale wired approximately $1,227,500 to 28

1 another business to which KARAPEDYAN had access. KARADPEYAN caused almost all of 2 these wire transfers to be converted into cash or to be sent as further wire transfers to other bank
3 accounts maintained under such names as . . . ‘Starsky Development Group,’ . . .” (Docket #502, 4 pp. 14, ¶27).

6 The averments contained in the Second Superseding Indictment in support of the 7 “Conspiracy to Commit Identity Theft” (Count Two), the “Conspiracy to Commit Access Device 8 Fraud” (Count Three) the “Conspiracy to Commit Mail, Wire, and Bank Fraud” (Count Four) and 9 the “Money Laundering Conspiracy” (Count Five) are all boilerplate, are bereft of specific factual
10 allegations and the government cannot allege any facts against defendant Starsky that do not arise 11 out of the factual averments relating to the contention that he was involved in “more than $1 12 million worth of improperly procured drugs” and financial transactions related thereto in 13 paragraphs 18 and 27 of the Second Superseding Indictment. Consequently, defendant Starsky
14 submits that he should be included in Trial Group No. 2 rather than Trial Group No. 1 because it 15 makes “the most sense from an evidentiary perspective” and “best reflect[s] the primary scheme 16 in which the defendants were involved.”

17
18 The fact that defendant Starsky does not belong in Trial Group 1 from an evidentiary 19 perspective underscores that his placement in that group, which includes the only two persons in 20 this case charged with murder for hire, will unduly prejudice Mr. Starsky in his effort to receive a 21 fair trial. It appears that the “murder for hire” conspiracy alleged in the Indictment is really a 22 spurious government creation, blown far out of proportion by the prosecution. However, even if 23 the charge had merit, those defendants should not be brought to trial with Mr. Starsky, who had 24 absolutely nothing to do with whatever dispute gave rise to the allegations. Rule 14(a) of the 25 Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure provides, that “if the joinder of offenses or defendants in an 26 Indictment or Information, or a consolidation for trial appears to prejudice a defendant or the 27
28

1 government, the Court may order separate trials of counts, sever the defendants' trials, or provide 2 any other relief that justice requires." Defendants Karapedyan and Ter-Mkrtchyan are charged in 3 Count Six of the Indictment with conspiracy to use interstate facility to commit murder-for-hire.
4 Mr. Starsky has nothing whatever to do with this allegation and he should not be required to stand 5 trial with those defendants. The danger of unfair prejudice to Mr. Starsky, who has no alleged 6 connection with this transaction, is overwhelming and requires that that he not be placed in the 7 same trial group as these individuals. The government may argue that the same allegation is 8 made in the Count One RICO charge. We are confident, however, that this charge as presently 9 constituted simply cannot stand and that the government never will be able to prove that whatever
10 defendants Karapedyan and Ter-Mkrtchyan did that the government claims constitutes the murder 11 for hire conspiracy, in no way furthered the RICO conspiracy alleged in Count One. For this 12 reason, too, Mr. Starsky should be removed from Group 1 and placed in Group 2, where he 13 belongs by virtue of the charges and evidence against him.

16 CONCLUSION

17 Based on the foregoing, Defendant Starsky respectfully submits that it would be 18 appropriate to place him in Trial Group 2.
